SAN FRANCISCO, CA—Feb 13, 2015—On Friday, March 20, the Rotunda Dance Series continues its 5th season with a performance of traditional Greek dance by the Minoan Dancers. The high-profile Rotunda Dance Series brings many of the Bay Area's most celebrated dance companies to San Francisco City Hall's rotunda space for free monthly noon-time performances. The series is presented by Dancers' Group and World Arts West in partnership with San Francisco's Grants for the Arts and San Francisco City Hall.

Throughout 2015, the monthly Rotunda Dance Series celebrates the 100th anniversary of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. The 1915 Exposition left a lasting imprint on the San Francisco Bay Area, especially in regards to world dance and music. It is only fitting that the highly visible Rotunda Dance Series use this historic anniversary to celebrate the past, present and future of dance in the Bay Area.

About Minoan Dancers (minoans.com) The Minoan Dancers were created in 1986 by artistic directors Vasilis and Effie Fourakis at the Nativity of Christ Greek Orthodox Church in Marin County, and are dedicated to the preservation and promotion of Greek culture and folk dancing in the San Francisco Bay Area and beyond. The Minoan Dancers have performed throughout California at events such as the San Francisco Ethnic Dance Festival, Marin Greek Festival, church festivals, the Marin County Fair, charity functions and retirement homes, and at celebrations of Greek national holidays.
