San Francisco City Hall

SAN FRANCISCO, CA—August 3, 2016—In their sixth season of free monthly dance performances in San Francisco City Hall's extraordinary rotunda, Dancers' Group and World Arts West continue their partnership to bring audiences lunchtime glimpses into movement and musical traditions from around the world.

This September, through a diverse mixture of movement and poetic prose, the all-female dance company Mix'd Ingrdnts will perform In Between the Seams, which aims to push boundaries and broaden understanding of the importance of human connection. In a world where the meaning of connection is rapidly changing and evolving, Mix'd Ingrdnts Dance Company explores the value and challenges of connection—with ourselves, our environments, and each other.

The Rotunda Dance Series will continue monthly through 2016, including performances by AXIS Dance Company (October 7), the Mussel Rock Cloggers (November 4), and Bolivia Corazón de América (December 9).

The Series brings many of the Bay Area's most celebrated dance companies to San Francisco City Hall's rotunda space for free monthly noon-time performances. The Rotunda Dance series is presented by Dancers' Group and World Arts West in partnership with Grants for the Arts and San Francisco City Hall.

About Mix'd Ingrdnts Dance Company (mixdingrdnts.com)

Mix'd Ingrdnts Dance Company is a multi-ethnic and diverse collective of female artists who work together as an all-styles dance company, with the intent of cultivating a stronger community of artists of all ages through urban performance, dance education and connection. Mix'd Ingrdnts is directed by Co-Founders Jennifer "Jenay" Anolin and Samara Atkins, who began the company in 2010 wanting to affect their community in ways that inspired people to have an artistic approach to evoke social change and to tell a story. The company exists to empower women to express themselves and to hold platforms to help facilitate the community speaking up and out for the greater good. Mix'd Ingrdnts also strives to empower youth through knowledge and dance in order to impact their lives so that they can impact others and their communities. The company does this through forums, school assemblies, festivals, and various events around the Bay Area.
